LETTER OF CONDOLENCE ON THE PASSING OF HIS ROYAL MAJESTY YAA NAA ABUKARI MAHAMA II

By the authority of the Overlord of Anlo Dukor, and on behalf of the Chiefs, Queen Mothers, Elders, and the entire people of Anlo Dukor, we extend our deepest and heartfelt condolences to the Dagbon Kingdom on the passing of His Royal Majesty Yaa Naa Abukari Mahama II.

The news of the passing of the revered Yaa Naa has been received in Anlo State with profound sorrow and a heavy heart. His departure represents a great loss not only to the Dagbon Kingdom, but also to Ghana's chieftaincy institution and the nation as a whole. His Royal Majesty was an exemplary traditional leader whose wisdom, humility, courage, and unwavering commitment to peace, unity, and national development earned him immense respect and admiration across Ghana.

The historic relationship between our two Kingdoms predates the colonial era and remains anchored on mutual respect, cultural affinity, and shared aspirations for peace and progress.

His Royal Majesty's gracious presence at the 2023 Anlo Hogbetsotso Festival Grand Durbar remains a cherished moment that further deepened the bonds between our two kingdoms and reaffirmed our collective responsibility to preserve Ghana's rich traditional heritage.

At this difficult and sombre moment, the Anlo Dukor Council stands in solidarity with the Royal Family, Chiefs, Elders, and the entire people of Dagbon as they mourn the passing of an exceptional statesman and custodian of tradition. We pray for eternal rest for the soul of His Royal Majesty and ask for strength, comfort, and peace for all who this great loss has touched.

The Anlo Dukor Council remains firmly in solidarity with the Dagbon Kingdom. It assures the Kingdom of its continued support as it preserves and celebrates the enduring legacy of Yaa Naa Abukari Mahama II.

Please accept the heartfelt sympathies and condolences of His Majesty the Overlord of Anlo Dukor and the entire Anlo State. May the enduring legacy of His Royal Majesty Yaa Naa Abukari Mahama II continue to inspire generations and strengthen the bonds of unity, service, and traditional leadership.
